

THE EMPIRE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY (Company)

MANDATE OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

AUTHORITY

Primary responsibility for the Company's financial reporting, accounting and financial reporting systems and internal controls is vested in senior management and overseen by the Board of Directors (Board). The Audit Committee (Committee) is a standing committee of the Board established to assist it in its oversight role with respect to:

- a. the integrity of the Company's financial statements and related information provided to shareholders and others,
- b. the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's internal control environment implemented and maintained by management,
- c. the qualifications, independence and performance of the external auditor, and
- d. the Company's compliance with financial regulatory requirements.

The Committee has unrestricted access to the external auditor, Company personnel, information, documents and resources as required to carry out its responsibilities as set out below. In consultation with the Chair, the Committee has the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within its scope of authority and to obtain advice and assistance in the conduct of investigations from independent counsel, actuaries, accountants or other professional advisors at the Company's expense.

STRUCTURE AND OPERATION

1. The Committee consists of at least three Directors (including the Chair), a majority of whom are not affiliated with the Company, and each of whom is financially literate. A member of the Committee is considered to be financially literate if they are able to read and understand the Company's financial statements to the extent sufficient to be able to intelligently ask and evaluate the answers to questions about the material aspects of those financial statements. No employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries may be a member of the Committee. The Chair is an independent director.
2. Committee members are appointed by the Board to serve one-year terms, but may serve any number of consecutive terms. Any member of the Committee may be removed or replaced at any time by the Board, and the Board will fill Committee vacancies.
3. The Committee meets at least four times each year. Any member of the Committee may call additional meetings at their discretion. The Committee may call a Board meeting to consider any matter of concern to the Committee.
4. The external auditor receives notice of all meetings, and is entitled to attend and be heard at those meetings. The external auditor may call a meeting of the Committee to consider any matter of concern to it.
5. Quorum for a meeting of the Committee is a majority of its members. Notwithstanding any vacancy on the Committee, a quorum may exercise all of the powers of the Committee. Decisions of the Committee are determined by a majority vote.

6. The Committee meets privately with each of the Chief Financial Officer, the Chief Actuary, the Appointed Actuary, the Chief Auditor and the General Counsel at each regularly scheduled meeting, and these officers have unrestricted access to Committee members between meetings.
