

THE EMPIRE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY (Company)

MANDATE OF THE HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE

AUTHORITY

Primary responsibility for oversight of the Company's human resources practices, including employee compensation, succession planning, diversity and inclusion programs, workforce and pension and benefit plans, is vested in senior management and is overseen by the Board of Directors (Board). The Human Resources Committee (Committee) is a standing committee of the Board established to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight role with respect to the Company's:

- a. Board member nomination and succession planning, and Board and Board committee assessment processes,
- b. human resources strategy and programs, including those relating to succession planning for executives, and compensation, and
- c. pension plan governance.

The Committee has unrestricted access to Company personnel, information, documents and resources as required to carry out its responsibilities as set out below. In consultation with the Chair, the Committee has the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within its scope of authority and to obtain advice and assistance in the conduct of investigations from independent counsel, accountants or other professional advisors at the Company's expense.

STRUCTURE AND OPERATION

1. The Committee consists of at least three Directors (including the Chair), a majority of whom are not persons affiliated with the Company. No employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries may be a member of the Committee.
2. Committee members are appointed by the Board to serve one-year terms, but may serve any number of consecutive terms. Any member of the Committee may be removed or replaced at any time by the Board, and the Board will fill Committee vacancies.
3. The Committee meets at least four times each year. Any member of the Committee may call additional meetings at their discretion. The Committee may call a Board meeting to consider any matter of concern to the Committee.
4. The external auditor receives notice of all Committee meetings.
5. Quorum for a meeting of the Committee is a majority of its members. Notwithstanding any vacancy on the Committee, a quorum may exercise all of the powers of the Committee. Decisions of the Committee are determined by a majority vote.
